Race fees

Members who wish to race their boat in CYC races may pay an individual race fee for that race, at member price, or save by choosing one of the special race packages offered. All race fees are substantially lower for CYC members than for non-members.

Online membership information: www.cycseattle.org/membership.html

Senior Member - This class of membership entitles each member to enter club races and cruises, to represent the club in regattas and championships held at other clubs, to cast one vote and to hold office. Senior members can obtain a key to the clubhouse to use whenever the clubhouse is not being rented. They enjoy reciprocal privileges with other yacht clubs, receive, and may fly the CYC Burgee. Spouses and children are also entitled to club privileges.

Associate Member - This class of membership is for non-boat owners who would like to participate in CYC races as crew members, and in CYC social and educational events. They receive all publications.

Junior Member - This membership entitles the sailor to race in club races, represent CYC in other Club races, receive all publications and participate in social and educational events. Must be under 19 years old on the day he or she registers.

Intermediate Member - One who is at least 19 and not more than 24 years old and is entitled to all rights and privileges except to vote or hold office.

Non Resident (NR) - A senior member who lives and works outside the counties fronting Puget Sound and is not active.
